Channel shaping and levee at Warrah Hall has created a head-cut below this area that has the potential to change the course of the creek.

The levee at the Warrah Hall should be maintained at a height of 1.5 m. The creek bank near this area also requires stabilisation.