Definitions

Suspicious activity reports: These are reports filed when a person notifies NRAR that they believe a breach of the Water Management Act 2000 or the Water Act 1912 has occurred or is occurring.

Investigations finalised: NRAR formally closes all alleged breach notifications once the regulator reaches a decision. The reasons for NRAR's decision are recorded in NRAR's case management system. Informants receive notification of the outcome within five working days of NRAR's decision.

Advisory letter: An advisory letter is a letter that provides advice about requirements of the Water Management Act 2000 or Water Act 1912.

Formal warnings: A formal warning is a letter to an alleged offender advising there are reasonable grounds to believe they may have committed a minor breach of the Water Management Act 2000 or the Water Act 1912 and warning the alleged offender in relation to that breach and any future breaches of the legislation.

Statutory notice: NRAR has investigated a matter and issued a statutory direction under a provision within Chapter 7 of the Water Management Act 2000.

Penalty notice: NRAR has investigated a matter and issued a penalty notice under Water Management Act 2000.

Prosecution finalised: NRAR has investigated and a prosecution has been finalised under a provision within the Water Management Act 2000.
