Map of Australia showing the location of the Lake Bancannia Basin in South Australia, with Queensland to the north and Victoria to the south. Sydney is marked in Victoria.

NOTE: The AWRC convention was to use 6 digit stations. Therefore, with more than 9 Divisions, a work around was required. As such, their workaround dictated that: Basins in Div 10 (Ten) are named 001, 002, 003 etc, and Basins in Div 11 (Eleven) are named 011, 012. Where: 011 = XII = Div 11 Basin 1 Where: 012 = XII = Div 11 Basin 2
