

Minister's consent to transfer a Crown land lease by assignment or change of control

Depending on the conditions of the lease and notifications on the NSW Land Title Register, you may need to obtain the consent of the minister to transfer a Crown land lease by assignment or change of control. Use this form to seek the minister's consent to transfer a lease by way of assignment or change of control.

In completing the form, the following terms of reference are used:

- 'Transferor(s)' refers to the current holder of the lease seeking the minister's consent to transfer the Crown land lease by assignment or change of control
- 'Transferee' refers to the party or person to whom the Crown land lease is to be transferred
- 'Department' refers to the Department of Planning, Industry and Environment—Crown Land
- 'Change of control' means a change in a tenant's business structure enabling:
 - the appointment or control of more than 50% of the number of directors of the holder's board
 - the exercise (directly or indirectly) of more than 50% of votes entitled to be cast at any general meeting of the holder
 - the holding of more than 50% of the issued share capital of the holder (other than shares issued with no rights other than to receive a specified amount in distribution).

The transferor and transferee must sign this form. The transferor must lodge the form.

Depending on the nature of the proposed transfer and the type of lease, a deed of assignment may be required between the transferor, the transferee and the department to capture the obligations of the parties and the minister's consent.

The department will consult Liquor & Gaming NSW for any application to transfer a lease of a licensed premises before undertaking any further assessment.

For additional information on the minister's consent to transfer by assignment or change of control, refer to Guideline—Management of Crown land leases, www.industry.nsw.gov.au/__data/assets/pdf_file/0007/284389/Guideline-Leasing-Crown-Land.pdf
