

Idea

1 message

To: water.reform@industry.nsw.gov.au

Fri, Mar 16, 2018 at 5:48 PM

Evening

To help add water to the system why are we not pumping water from the east coast from storm water, sewerage etc into a creek on top of the range through a couple of man made swamps and then into rivers and creeks going west?

We are the driest island on the planet?