Warrah Creek Floodplain Management Plan

Loss of meanders and bed lowering near "Kelso" on the Quirindi side of Willow Tree. New channel suffering significant erosion.

Significant effect on flood flows. Requires remediation consistent with recommended land use management practices.

River bed requires control structures to allow for sediment accumulation.