Consent of adjoining or affected landholders

Before you lodge an application, we recommend that you discuss the proposal to purchase the Crown road with adjoining and/or other affected landowners, including any government authority responsible for the management of affected land or waterways. If agreement cannot be reached with the affected landholders, an application can still be lodged with the department and the access issues will be assessed and determined by the department when we begin processing the application.

List the names of all known landholders likely to be affected by the sale of Crown roads subject to this application.
